THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS

1st Reading

The Bridegroom rejoices over the bride.

2nd Reading

The one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills.

Gospel

This, the first of the signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee.

As the bridegroom rejoices over his bride, so shall your Lord God rejoice over you! These uplifting words flow from the Prophecy of Isaiah as we read this Sunday.

The God of providence offers his gifts freely to all, especially in areas we lack. We are given all sorts of gifts, but it is the same Spirit coordinating and working in us and through us.

Jesus didn't 'perform' signs and wonders like any 'gifted' person of his time. John teaches us that in his life time on earth, Jesus gave signs that God's glory may be seen; and that all may believe in the one who sent him. The first of these signs was given at Cana in Galilee.

Music at Mass: During the next few weeks I will be introducing some new hymns. The Choir will be singing them either during communion or at the end of Mass, the week before they are included as congregational hymns. As a congregation you are always good at singing at Mass so do your best if the new hymns are unfamiliar to you. Could I also point out that the setting of the People's Mass is not responsorial; you need to sing all the music, not echo the singers. Thank you. Frances

VOLUNTEERS IN THE CHURCH: A very big thank you to all the volunteers in our parish community. We cannot thank you enough for the gift of your time and talents. However, we are mindful that our parish priest and the entire pastoral team have a duty of care for our staff and for those who volunteer to support us in any way. We have carefully discerned that some are beginning to be burdened by their voluntary services. Recently, we have received a good number of brilliant recommendations in the suggestion box; part of it being the need to make some changes and to relieve some volunteers of their duties. Therefore, without prejudice to the excellent services of our volunteers, we invite anyone who wishes to be relieved of their duties in the parish, especially those in the finance and pastoral committees of the parish, to inform our parish priest as soon as possible. We do hope that any decision taken in this regard will rightly be understood as having been carefully made with prayer and discernment.

PARKING: At busy times, such as at Sunday Mass, do consider parking in the free public car park in the Ellendune Centre, when the Church car park is full. Please keep the roads and pavements near the Church clear and avoid blocking people's residence and shops.
